

Good morning and welcome to services! We appreciate the Elkhart church of Christ inviting us to a devotional last night. I hope all who attended were edified and uplifted. Our L2L scrapbooking team also met this weekend and it is coming along beautifully! Today we are having our quarterly fellowship and hope you all will stay after for a great meal and time together as a church family. This afternoon at 3:00 our L2L puppet team is meeting for practice. This will be the team attending conference and performing there. Lads to Leaders convention is coming up soon and we are looking forward to the new location in Fort Worth! So much of what we are doing right is in preparation for convention and I know we will all do well. DOUG

“Escape From Confusion”

We live in a complex age, a time of great confusion. People rush madly from one place and thing to another. There seems to be time for nothing. The pace is taking its toll in a steady increase of neurotics and psychotics. A helpful suggestion for escape from confusion is to be found in the following recipe which we copied from a recent issue of Nuggets from the pen of an anonymous author: “Amid the confusion of my day, give me the calmness of the everlasting hills. Teach me the art of taking minute vacations, of slowing down to look at a flower, to chat with a friend, to pet a dog, to read from a good book. Remind me to look upward at the towering oak, and to know that it grew tall and strong because it grew slowly and well.” - James W. Adams,

WHAT MAKES A STRONG CHURCH

Strong Bible preaching and teaching! God’s word, when it is disseminated plainly, forcefully, uncompromisingly, and yet kindly, will BUILD UP! Paul said, "I commend you unto God, and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up. . ." Acts 20:32.

- Exemplary Leadership! Men who make themselves "examples to the flock," and who are careful in tending it (1 Peter 5:2-3). To grow, the church must have quality leadership — men who know how to lead it and will do so.

- Christian living on the part of every member! Unimpeachable conduct so clearly evidenced in the lives of Christians will illuminate the way for many in the realm of darkness (Matthew 5:16; Philippians 2:15).

- Congregational warmth and love! The fellowship of the Lord’s church should be so sweet and precious that the whole community takes note, and observes, "See how they love each other!" Without this, a congregation will never be what God would have it be!

- Compassionate hearts! The church of Christ needs to be known as the most tender-hearted bunch of people in all the world . . . ready and willing to help all, and especially those of the household of faith (Galatians 6:9-10).

Evangelistic fervor! The emphasis of the early church was soul-winning! The church will grow when we cease not to "teach and to preach Jesus as the Christ" every day, wherever we have opportunity (Acts 5:42). DAN

One Responds to the invitation of Christ for prayer & Membership Welcome!

From Dan's desk:

Thanks you all for being a part of our fellowship today. Many are visiting the Dogwood Trails this year. If you are visiting with us, we are glad you have come. The Dogwoods are not in full bloom quite yet, but in a week they will be in full bloom. We are glad you have chosen to be with us for our worship hour today. Many of you know that today marks our 50th anniversary with the Crockett Rd. Church of Christ. So many memories flood my mind today. Audrey and I moved here with Danna (then 3 years old) and started our work with the church on March 27th. It has been a wonderful experience and we have been blessed to have worked with the best church ever. We thank God for each of you and we look forward to many days to come. God continues to bless the church here with new additions and we are thankful. Last Sunday morning, MARY ALICE LARGENT responded to the invitation to ask for prayers and place membership with the congregation here. We have known each other for a long time and we have been talking and talking about the church over the last several weeks. She has made that decision and she will be a great addition to the Family of God at this place. We welcome her into our fellowship. Please get to know her if you have not met her. We thank you for all you do as a congregation and we also hope that you will want to attend the Monday Night For The Master program tomorrow night. We will eat at 6:15 and then work between 7 & 8 P.M. We also hope to see you tonight at 6 P.M. DAN

WELCOME VISITORS

A big hearty welcome to those visiting today. Allow us to meet and greet you following the worship service this morning. At the end of the service today you will be given a gift bag from our congregation.

“THE DAY THE UNDERTAKER DIED”

I was still pretty young when one of the funeral directors in my hometown died. To a young mind, that seemed so strange. He was always supposed to be there when other people died. Now, his family needed the services of a funeral director. Have you ever wondered who cuts your barber's hair? To whom does your doctor go when he gets sick? Who puts the fillings in the teeth of your dentist (in case he doesn't follow the advice he gives you and gets a toothache)? Those who usually serve need, at times, need to be served. This is just as true in the church as it is in the world. Remember that Paul admonishes us, “Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ” (Galatians 6:2). What about the person you usually rely on for support? Do you try to observe moments when you can serve and support him or her? There are those times when they need you, you know. All of us, including elders and preachers, and their families, need somebody to talk with, cry with, laugh with – somebody who has no particular talent other than the ability to care.” ...but by love serve one another. For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.” -- Galatians 5:13-14
