

Good morning! We are so glad to have you all here with us this morning. We hope you will be able to be back tonight to join us at our devotional immediately following evening worship. We are so excited for Lads to Leaders convention later this week. It's always a wonderful time of fellowship with our group as well as with Christians from all over the region. This year has been challenging for L2L, but we have had great participation and look forward to celebrating everyone's hard work!

Hope everyone has a great week! DOUG

"And whatever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord and not to men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance; for you serve the Lord Christ."

Selfishness...The Greatest Curse Of The Human Race

Selfishness is defined: "Caring unduly or supremely for one-self; regarding one's own comfort in disregard, or at the expense of that of others." Synonyms of selfishness are: "ungenerous, narrow, narrow-minded, self-indulgent, grasping, piggish, hoggish, miserly and covetous." Tertullian once said, "He who lies only to benefit himself, confers on the world a benefit when he dies." Why would this be so? Because a selfish individual is despised by all and is therefore his own greatest enemy. He is miserable and unhappy and makes no worthwhile contribution to society. "Otherism" is no part of his philosophy of life. Christ, our example, lived an unselfish life. No one has ever lived a more unselfish life than Jesus Christ. "Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus. Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: but made him-self of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men; And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross." (Philippians 2:4-8). Selfishness drives Christ out of one's heart. Doing nothing for others is the undoing for our own selves. A person centered on self, lacks a lot being well balanced in life. Paul was thinking of an unselfish life when he wrote: "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave him-self for me." (Galatians 2:20). Beth Freeman Goes to be with our God. She will be missed.

From Dan's desk:

Our hearts were saddened last Sunday when we learned of the departure of BETH FREEMAN from this life. Beth had been an active member of the Lord's Church for many years and had been serving as one of our church secretaries for the last three years. We will miss her as we mourn her passing, but pray for her family during this time. Beth was a sweet and kind co-worker along with Lorelee. She was always willing to help and do whatever might be necessary here in the office. She always made an effort to proof-read my powerpoint lessons to make sure I had no errors. I will surely miss being associated with her. She had been fighting cancer for the last year. She was brave and gave it all she had. The good Lord chose to take her to himself and we do not question His timing. Beth was ready to go home. She would want me to express to you her love and appreciation for every call, card, food and many acts of kindness during her illness. Thanks to each of you for being present this morning. We are glad you are here. The beautiful weather God has given us makes us grateful even more for the God we honor and serve. The attendance continues to grow each week and the spirit of love grows as well. I am so glad that we have chosen to open things up a little. Thanks to all who came to Monday Night For The Master last Monday night. Much was accomplished. I hope you all will stay for the luncheon today. Great food and fellowship planned. Don't forget to join us this evening at 6 P.M. for worship.

SYMPATHY

Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to the family of BETH FREEMAN who passed away last Sunday. Funeral services were held this last Thursday here at the building.

WHAT WILL YOU LEAVE TO OTHERS?

What is the greatest thing you could leave behind when you die? Some will say it is the gift of love. Showing your family members what it means to love and encourage them to show that love to one another. Others might say that the greatest thing we can leave behind is faith. Demonstrating to your family what it means to trust in God and encouraging them to also live by faith also. Love and faith are certainly important things to leave behind, but I think there is something else of equal, perhaps greater value that we can leave behind and that is hope. When you depart from this life you will be separated from those you love. You will not see them anymore in this life and they will not see you. During that period of absence brought on by death is there anything more wonderful to give your love ones than hope? The hope to see each other again. The expectation that because you live your life by faith and love in God you will see those you left behind again. This was the point of Paul's message in 1 Thess. 4.13-18. Paul also said, "If in this life only we are of all men most miserable." WHAT WILL YOU LEAVE FOR OTHERS?
