

Good morning and welcome to services! Happy Independence Day! We are looking forward to spending time with our church family tonight for our annual watermelon supper. It is always a great time of fellowship. Thank you to everyone who pitched in and helped with our Bible Class Teacher Appreciation dinner this past Thursday. It is such a joy to honor those who give of themselves so we might learn more about our Lord. We are looking forward to our car wash service project on Saturday the 10th. All funds raised will go toward school clothes for students in need. Also, we will be going to Central Texas Children's Home on July 16th for an overnight mission trip. Please sign up on the youth bulletin board if you plan to attend. This week's Summer Youth Series will be Tuesday night at University Church of Christ in Tyler. We will meet at the building at 5:00 to caravan there. Have a great week! DOUG"

Therefore be imitators of God as dear children."Ephesians 5:1 NKJV

Humility

It is my joy through life to find
 At every turning of the road
 The strong arms of a comrade kind
 To help me onward with my load.
 And since I have no gold to give,
 And love alone must make amends,
 My only prayer is: While I live
 God make me worthy of my friends.

WORKING TOGETHER

Getting along together takes working together. God asked through Amos, "Shall two walk together, except they have agreed?" This is true in any combination of people. No combination is it more important in than marriage. The strife that enters a marriage relationship that is unchecked portends evil results. In the early pioneer days there was an older couple who seemingly could not get along because they fought and quarreled continually and had done so for many years. A new preacher moved into the area and, when he heard of their evil habit, paid them a visit. He said to them, "If you will cooperate, I will teach you a simple lesson that will help you." When they had agreed, he threw a rope up over a tree limb and asked each one to pull on the end of the rope. After they had pulled hard against each other for a while, he asked them to stop, and said, "Now, I want each of you to pull on the same end of the rope." When they did so, they very easily pulled the rope over the tree limb. The preacher then said, "Pull together, and not against each other" and jumped in his buggy and rode off! The same is true with congregational relationships. It is essential that brethren work together for they are working for God. "For we are God's fellow-workers: ye are God's husbandry, God's building" (1 Cor. 3:9). All of us in this congregation are workers together -- for the Good Lord. Pull on the same end of the rope.

One Baptized.
Watermelon supper tonight
after evening service.

From Dan's desk:

Tonight after the evening worship service, we will have our annual watermelon supper. Traditionally we have always celebrated our nation's independence on the 4th of July. This year the 4th falls on Sunday. I hope that we all appreciate the country in which we live. We just have to continue to make America Great. I will be presenting a lesson this morning on America. God has blessed our nation and I hope that we will continue to pray that we will continue to return to God and the principles that made our country a land of freedom and a "home of the brave". Last Sunday night AMANDA LANE came forward with a desire to be baptized. She had been baptized at an early age and wanted to make sure that she had done this for the right reason. Her love for God is without question. I commend her for her faith and love for our Master. Summer vacations have begun and several were out of town last week, but several are returning back home safely. We have been blessed with a number of visitors in our services the last few weeks. Let's do our best to spot these folks and make them feel welcome. We want them to know without question that Crockett Rd. Church of Christ is indeed a friendly church and that we love God and His Word. We thank you all for being present this morning and I hope that each of you will be present tonight for the evening lesson and the fellowship that will follow. See you tonight.
