From Dan's desk:

Monday Night For The Master will resume tomorrow night at the activity Building at 6:15 P.M. We will join together in the meal at 6:15 P.M. and work for one hour doing miscellaneous jobs around the building and signing cards to the sick and bereaved. We hope you will put it on your agenda to be present as we work for the Master Jesus. Children's Bible has resumed in the chapel on Sunday evenings and the new class for the 4th-7th young people are both off to a great start. Thanks to all those who are participating. The cooler temperatures and rain have both been a tremendous blessing for each of us. The good Lord knows exactly when to send it. It has been a long hot, dry summer but greater days are ahead and we are thankful. Autumn officially started this last week. Before long the Fall foliage will begin to emerge. We have been having a number of people sick with the Covid-19 again. Continue to pray for all of these who have been ill and unable to join us in worship. Hopefully and prayerfully before long they will be able to be back with us. We have been having numerous visitors with us each Lord's Day. Such was the case last Sunday as well. Several had come for the Dogwood Jamboree and stayed over to worship with us. Be sure to greet those who visit and make them feel welcome. See you tonight at 6 P.M. DAN

MONDAY NIGHT FOR THE MASTER will resume tomorrow night at 6:15 for the meal and we will work from 7-8. Come for pizza and salad.

NON DENOMINATION

Denominationalism has to do with dividing up the whole into parts and giving each part its own name. In mathematical fractions, the lower number is called the "denominator" which tells us into how many parts the whole has been divided. But, the word "denominate" simply means to name or to give a designation to something. Denominationalism is rooted in the sinful divisions of men dividing and splitting the church of Christ. Christ came and established His one church (Matt. 16:18), but men have been dividing the whole into thousands of factions and fractions. The attempts to divide the church began in the very first century when the church began. Paul challenged the Corinthians who were dividing themselves into various factions and denominating them by saying, "I am of Paul" and "I of Apollos," and "I of Cephas," and others, "I of Christ" (1 Cor. 1:12). Apparently, the apostle was able to end the divisions within the congregation. In fact, most of our New Testament is written to stop the false teaching and division that men are so prone to initiate. In the twenty-first century, we must not engage in denominating the church of our Lord. If the apostles were here today, they would write to us in the same way that Paul wrote to the Corinthians in stopping the divisions. Since we have the words of the apostles in our New Testament, let us follow them so that we can be sure we are on the right track and are avoiding denominationalism. I certainly do not want to be a part of any man-made division. I only want to be a part of the church that belongs to Christ.
