

Good morning, it's good to see everyone here this morning. In studying the book of Hebrews, "let's note the things "we have" in CHRIST: (1) A great high priest (4:14-16; 8:1);(2) Hope as an anchor of the soul (6:19); (3) Everlasting possessions in heaven (10:34); (4) An altar (CHRIST'S sacrifice of Himself) for our forgiveness (13:10); and (5) No abiding city here, but the promise of the heavenly city hereafter (13:14; 11:10)." (Know Your Bible, Frank J. Dunn, Page 580). Let's all live in such a way that others see CHRIST living in us so Heaven will be our home someday. Have a great week!

DOUG

"But now they desire a better, that is, a heavenly country. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them."

"If I send my prayer as a text message, will I get a faster reply?"

"JUST KEEP QUIET OR SILENT"

The word silence or its equivalent is found often in your Bible. We often sing a song that has this word within it which is taken from Habakkuk 2:20. It is here that men are told to "keep silence before him." There is much more than just being quiet in the assembly where God is worshiped. Take a look at some cases of silence that may be either good or bad. There is a silence that is suitable. There are no doubt times when it is best to say nothing. Was this the case with the friends of Job? You know they came and sat with Job for seven days and "none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great" (Job 2:13). It seems the only fitting thing is to just say nothing. They could, however, just be there to let him know of their concern and sympathy for him. Isn't this the case when death occurs and we just go to be with those who have suffered the loss? Though we may not say a thing, just being there is enough. DAN

SYMPATHY

Our sympathy is extended to the family of WILLETTE RASURE who passed away last Tuesday. A private family memorial service will be held at a later date.

"I BELIEVE IN PERSONAL EVANGELISM"

I believe that personal evangelism cannot be overlooked. Personal evangelism, is seen by many as way beyond their talent and abilities. A lot of people are simply afraid, and do not deny it. Others doubt their own ability to teach and answer questions accurately. Some are not prepared to serve the Lord outside of their own piety, but entertain hopes of growing able, while others simply lack sufficient love for souls to care enough to become involved. Some cannot help in a direct way, because of infirmities that hinder their best intentions. Most likely all have good motives, but get so busy with secular life they find it terribly difficult to set aside time for ministry (Luke 8:14). Modern life is very fast paced. People are truly pressed for time. Not everyone has the same abilities; not even the same calling, but everyone has a part to play in the Lord's work, even if simply a supportive role. Without supporting actors, and a host of "extras," few movies could be made. A few handsome faces may get all the "Oscars," and those sidekicks, and faces in the crowd may go relatively unnoticed, but their contributions are nevertheless vital. The products that appear on store shelves are there, because of the anonymous labor of many support workers, each with a small role, like labeling, packaging, or shipping. High profile advertisements, and well dressed executives may be the face of these operations, but no product would reach the shelf without all the support workers. May God help us to do our part in leading the lost to Jesus. DAN

We begin worship services tonight at 6 P.M.
Plan to be with us.

From Dan's desk:

I sincerely hope and pray that you will be with us tonight for the evening worship service. We are gradually trying to go back to the normal schedule. In a few weeks we will begin having Sunday morning Bible class. Wednesday evenings will follow later. The attendance was larger last Sunday morning than the previous week. This is wonderful. RODNEY COVINGTON came forward last Sunday morning asking for the prayers of the church here. We commend him. I am excited about us making the effort to resume a near normal schedule. If for any reason that COVID-19 appears to be getting worse, I can assure you that we will not put you in harm's way or put you at risk. We can make any adjustments that are needed to insure your safety. I hope you will feel safe in coming to worship. God will bless us when we move from "fear to Faith". We were saddened by the death of WILLETTE RASURE this last week. She was a faithful Christian and Bible School teacher here for many years. The family plans a private memorial service in the future. She will be missed. The Sunday evening service, like the morning service will air on Monday since we are now meeting together on Sunday evening. We do not record them earlier in the week as previous, but we record them live and then post them on Facebook or website on Monday. When we resume meeting on Wednesday night we will no longer have a lesson on Facebook. We appreciate having these tools available to us over the last few months. Our new camera, recorder and audio mixer has been purchased with contributions in memory of Jim Davis. See you tonight. DAN

GOT MILK?

It's quite amazing to observe a new born baby and the way they just naturally crave milk for their nourishment, as well as pleasure I assume. I think it's safe to say a baby gets that "yummy in the tummy" feeling after consuming their favorite meal- "milk is good food" as the commercial used to say. When we are spiritually healthy Christians we'll experience a similar craving for the pure spiritual milk of God's word which is essential for our spiritual growth. I Pet. 2:1-3 "Therefore, rid yourselves of all malice and all deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and slander of every kind. Like newborn babies, crave pure spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow up in your salvation, now that you have tasted that the Lord is good He is so good to us all." In Peter's second letter we are challenged to grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. (II Pet. 3:18) Growth in these areas of our spiritual life are directly tied to our craving for God's word. Jesus said "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness for they will be filled."- Mt. 5:6 Please read in II Pet. 1:5-8 and make every effort to add to your faith goodness; and to goodness, knowledge, and to knowledge, self-control; and to self-control, perseverance, and to perseverance, godliness; and to godliness, brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness love. For if you possess these qualities in increasing measure, they will keep you from being ineffective and unproductive in your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. As we grow and mature in these areas of our Christian life we will be "effective" and "productive in our knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

MIKE SHERMAN

Our family would like to say thank you for the delicious food served our family the day of Jim's funeral. For all who had a part in this kind gesture we are most grateful. This is a wonderful church and we love you all.

Jane Davis & family.
