

Teen News

We are glad you all are here this morning. Thanks to those of you who come regularly to Bible Class. Today after class we will have lunch in the activity building and discuss plans for L.T.C. We have several who want to participate in L.T.C. and adults who want to help. We ask that you go directly to the Activity Bldg. after services. Remember to mark the dates of March 25-26. It will be a great weekend for those who want to be involved. A week from today we will take all of you who would like to go bowling after the Sunday morning service. We will have lunch and then go bowling. Remember the Chili-cook-off coming up on Feb. 7th. See you all tonight.

"The Two Go Together"

Hand in hand with patience is kindness. If you lack one you lack both—if you have one you have both. We often learn these two corresponding skills from our parents or those who have influence on our early lives. However, a lack of example in these areas is not an excuse to abandon them. As with all challenges we must rise up to meet them. Both patience and kindness are trainable skills and in order to know how to develop them we must go to the word of God. Then with the knowledge of God's word we will have to make practical application of patience. So let's open our Bible and learn ways we can develop these traits to the fullest. Love is kind and love is patient. I Cor. 13. May God help us to let Patience and kindness grow to maturity in our live.

DON'T WORRY

The solution to problems is not denial. We should learn to admit reality, then work with it as it is. When there are matters we can change for the better, let's work to change them. When the circumstances don't meet our concept of ideal, and we can't change them, let's learn to accept them and resolve to move forward with the strength God supplies. In all matters, we must "seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness" (Matthew 6: 33). Because, as another one of my favorite "profound" questions reminds us, a hundred years from now, what will "it" matter? We worry about things that will pass into oblivion, and sometimes ignore those matters that have eternal consequences. A hundred years from now, it won't matter that my car has a few scratches on it, or my water heater went out. What will matter is whether or not I have devoted myself to God and His Will. It is what it is.

At Crockett Rd.

From Dan's desk:

The new year is off to a great start. Last Sunday Robert and Rita Taylor asked to place membership with us here at Crockett Rd. We are happy that they have made this decision. They come to us from the Bul-lard Church of Christ. We welcome them into our fellowship. Henry Baker presented the budget and Dale made known plans for the church in the year 2016. This last week we spent time in taping the Give Me The Bible program and the daily commentary "Something To Think About". We were in the studio last Tuesday. I hope you will remember the Give Me The Bible Conference that will take place this coming Saturday. Mark Teske from the Gospel Broadcasting Network in Tennessee will be here along with Kris Groda from Mt. Pleasant, will be the featured speakers. The Gospel Advocate Book store in Dallas will be here with a huge book display and will make available publications to those in the church and others who join us for the conference. We now have some 37 churches of Christ who help financially with the program and make it available on a number of FOX, NBC and GBN affiliates. God has really blessed this program and those who work with it. Souls are being saved around our country and world as a result of our combined efforts to spread the Gospel. We appreciate your personal support financially and by your prayers. May God bless us all this year as we work together in His Kingdom. We have started a New study in our ladies Bible class on "The Role of Women In The Church." All women are invited to join us next Tuesday at 9:30 A.M. DAN

"You Have A Fortune Waiting"

"Several years ago, a story appeared in the newspapers, about a homeless man found dead on the streets of Los Angeles. His name was Morris Stegel. On the surface he seemed like your average Los Angeles street-person – roaming about in dark alleys, sleeping out-of-doors, carrying everything he owned in an old shopping cart. And he died the way you would expect a street-person to die – sprawled in an alley, dead of natural causes, heart trouble perhaps.

"But there was something different about Morris Stegel. Maybe it was that he had three bank accounts, containing a total of $207,421.00.

"It seems that ten years earlier Morris' father had died and left the money to him. But Morris didn't want it. When Morris did not claim it, the Division of Unclaimed Property tracked him down, and his family tried to force him to take it. They even arranged a ceremony to turn the money over to him, but Morris did not show up for the presentation. Later, he allowed himself to take enough of the money to buy an old car; which he used to sleep in during bad weather. His relatives rented him an apartment, but he never lived in it. Finally on Dec.10, 1959, he died just as he lived, a homeless man of the streets; with three dollars in his pocket and an unclaimed fortune in the bank. Jesus died and left us a fortune. That fortune is eternal life. It is the gift of God. Rom. 6:23. Many die without accepting God gift offer to us. How sad! Jesus died and offers us the greatest gift known to man. You have a heavenly home waiting for you if you will respond to the Will of God and accept His offer to you in obedience. You don't have to be homeless anymore. ADAPTED
