

Teen News

Good morning, glad to see you. Big thanks to all of you to make it a priority to attend services, especially those who make it both Wednesdays and Sundays. I know at your age and with all your activities it can be a challenge, just know that your dedication does not go unnoticed. You're building a strong spiritual foundation and are giving God the opportunity to work in your life. I hope you took our mid week class to heart and truly keep a mental note of what being a Christian really means to you and share your story with others. But as for me, it is good to be near God. I have made the Sovereign LORD my refuge I will tell of all your deeds. Psalm 73:28

THE SUPER BOWL & CHURCH

Today is the day that has come to be known as America's unofficial holiday. Yes, that's right, it is Super Bowl Sunday. Of course, the Super Bowl is the ultimate sports experience for most people who live in the United States. People start planning weeks in advance for their parties. It is said that more Americans watch the Super Bowl than any other program on television. In fact, over 150 million are expected to watch (that's over half the population of the U.S.) and during that time advertisers will pay $2.4 million dollars per half minute to promote their product. Many "churches" throughout the land won't even observe the one holy meal of which the Lord's church partakes every Sunday (Acts 20:7). It is quite doubtful that anyone will pay $2.4 million dollars per half minute in order to hear the greatest message ever known. These events hardly merit the attention of the local media, much less the national attention. Sunday is the day that the saints of God gather in fellowship one with another to recount the apostles doctrine, break bread, and pray (Acts 2:42). It is the day that those devoted to God may return to Him that portion of blessings which is His due (1 Corinthians 16:1, 2). It is the day that a remembrance is made of God's only begotten Son in the memorial feast that commemorates His body and blood (1 Corinthians 11:23-26). Because it was on this day, Sunday, that Jesus rose from the grave defeating Satan and gave us victory over death, that we assemble to honor, praise, and worship our Saviour and Lord. Where will you be tonight at 6 P.M. ? What is MORE important to you. ?

GREAT MONDAY NIGHT FOR THE MASTER

From Dan's desk:

A big thank you to all who came for MONDAY NIGHT FOR THE MASTER last Monday. We had near 50 in attendance. We are grateful to those who work in this special program. So much is always accomplished and we thank those who came and those who prepared the meal. The soup and cornbread, as well as the desserts, were really good. Thanks to all who helped with the clean up following the meal. There are always a lot of things that need to be done around a church building and so many in the church are willing to help and we hope that each of you are blessed because of your participation. Our church directory proof book will be ready soon and after proofing it, it will be sent to the printer for publication. It won't be too much longer before they will be in our hands. The pictures for the picture display board will also be available to us soon. We were saddened by the news of Mark Douglas' death last weekend. He was the son of Joyce Weatherly. At the time of this writing, services are pending. We always look forward to blending our voices in song on the first Weds. Night out of the month. That will take place next Wednesday night. Thanks for being present today. January is over and February has come. Let's make it a good month. If you are visiting, we are glad you are here. See you tonight.
