What a great day to fellowship with the Lord. Hope you guys had a fantastic week. I want to thank all of you who attended the Sandwich Supper last Sunday night. Brandy and I were very sorry that underlying circumstances kept us from being there. You all did a great job with the events you participated in at LTC and deserved the recognition. Tonight's devotional will take place at the home of CT and Hailey Brooks. Hope to see you there!

God's Law of Harvest Cannot Be Broken

If one sows to the spirit, he has real hope of eternal life (2 Tim. 4:6-8). If one is sowing to the flesh, he had better be ready to reap corruption (Rom. 3:8; 6:23). One cannot neglect God's law without consequences (Heb. 2:2-3). One cannot sow the "works of the flesh" and reap heaven (Gal. 5:17-21). One cannot engage in such things as "adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lewdness, idolatry, sorcery, hatred, contentions, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, dissensions, heresies, envy, murders, drunkenness, revelries, and the like" because "those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God." One cannot sow "wild oats" and expect to reap that which is good.

AM I ONE PERSON ON SUNDAY, AND A WHOLE DIFFERENT PERSON ON MONDAY AND TUESDAY?

Hypocrisy means to live a lie; to be a human contradiction; a walking deceit. Basically, it is the perfect character trait of the devil himself. Ask yourself: how do I act on Sunday? Am I always smiling, always shaking hands, paying attention. Now compare that "you" to the "you" during the week. Is there a difference?

Consider some verses on the subject:

"Ye that love the Lord, hate evil" (Psa. 97:10). Can I love the Lord on Sunday and not love Him on Monday? Yes, by not hating evil on Monday. In Proverbs 6, we learn there are seven things God hates. One of which is "a false witness that speaketh lies" (Pro. 6:19). Ask yourself: Is my life between services a walking lie? Or maybe:

Is my life during services the lie? Either way, God hates hypocrisy. A hypocritical life has nothing in common with God. It is, however, a perfect fit for Satan.

From Dan's desk:

We are so grateful for the young people of the congregation here at Crockett Rd. Last Sunday night we recognized the youth who went to L.T.C. this year and participated in numerous events. Puppets, Bible Dramas, reading, art, photography, Bible Quiz, bulletin boards and outreach were all a part of the activities the youth have been involved in over the last several months. We are grateful to Blake and Brandy for their support, encouragement and involvement with the youth. They are doing a great job and the youth love them. We regret that they could not be with us for the sandwich supper last Sunday night. The grandfather of Brandy had to be taken to the hospital in Tyler with heart pains and high blood pressure. They were the ones that carried him to the hospital and they stayed with him because of the serious nature of his illness. We did however acknowledge those who participated and wanted them to know that the awards will be given out by Blake soon. Thanks to all who attended, I know that the youth appreciate you also. I will be preaching near Franklin today in a meeting. Thanks to Bernie for preaching this morning and to the Deacons for bringing the lesson tonight.. We will be back in town on Thursday. Remember "Monday Night For The Master" next Monday night. If you can join us for the meal and work session, we would appreciate you being present. Let's continue to serve the Lord with vigor and enthusiasm.

Dan

KEYS TO A BETTER BIBLE CLASS

1. ATTEND PROMPTLY AND REGULARLY!
Missing shows a weak faith, and it discourages others.
2. BRING YOUR BIBLE!
It shows readiness to study.
3. PARTICIPATE IN CLASS!
We learn by sharing our understanding of God's Word.
4. SAY "AMEN!"
Don't be bashful. If you believe something is well said, let the class know it.
5. TAKE NOTES!
You will encourage the teacher, set a good example, and have a record for later study.
6. STUDY AT HOME!
You will learn more and be able to contribute more to the class.
7. SHOW THE TEACHER APPRECIATION
A good word or perhaps a note will encourage him and inspire him to do even better.
8. DISAGREE SWEETLY!
Others will at least know you are listening, and your attitude will make it easier for them to see your point of view and profit from it.
9. TALK THE CLASS UP!
Show excitement and tell someone else what you have gained. They too will become excited.
10. CHANGE!
This is the most difficult part, but a class is of little value if principles are not applied to life.

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth" (2 Tim. 2:15).
