THE AMERICAN HERO Selected

The American Hero always comes through
To capture our hearts with a spirit so true

Some proudly are soldiers who march in harm's way
Insuring our freedom, courageous they stay

While others come forth as civilians so brave Determined in purpose, so steadfast to save

We should always keep clear a place in our heart
For each has a value beyond precious art

Their duty to country will not be surpassed
Please honor their courage, for some it's their last.

We live in a world which can be hard to bear
Thank God for these people, how greatly they care

Do ponder new heroes and what they will face
And pray for their safety no matter their place

Our heritage brings out the best, we all know
Our great book of heroes is destined to grow

SCHEDULE CHANGE

Our midweek service the week of Thanksgiving will be on Tuesday, November 20th, instead of Wednesday. All classes will meet in the auditorium for a Thanksgiving devotional. Please mark your calendars.

"OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS"

America has long been known as the "land of opportunity." Opportunity has great potential as a motivational force in our lives. In the business realm, when "opportunity knocks", the successful entrepreneur makes the most of it. However, it is commonly admitted that, in the spiritual realm, many opportunities come and go without notice. While human weakness is largely to blame, much of our unused potential can be attributed to a growing complacency toward our God-given mission of seeking and saving the lost. Here are some suggestions to help us make greater use of our spiritual opportunities:

1. Pray for opportunities. God answers prayer. As we use the opportunities God provides, He will grant us even greater opportunities (Mt. 25:29).

2. Look for opportunities. While God gives the opportunity, we must recognize it. He is not going to speak directly from heaven, saying, "This is it! This the one you've been waiting for!" When searching for employment, one cannot expect to get a job without looking for one. Similarly, we must prayerfully search for opportunities. As a general rule, they will not simply drop into our laps.

3. Use the opportunity. Once the opportunity presents itself, be ready to use it. Be prepared for the Master's service. In all things, "Conduct yourselves with wisdom toward outsiders, making the most of the opportunity" (Col. 4:5).

We thank you for your service and sacrifices. We are forever grateful!

We thank God for our country and for those in the congregation who have served in the Armed Forces of America and those who now serve. We continue to keep you in our prayers to our Father. Happy Veterans Day 2018

Today is Veterans Day and we salute and honor all Veterans. Ladies Luncheon Tuesday Noon

From Dan's desk:

The Gospel Meeting in Jefferson was well attended and it was a pleasure to speak during the gospel effort while there. Dennis Morris is the local preacher and does a good job. He is a regular panelist on the "Give Me The Bible" television program. We appreciate him and others who serve in this special effort. My thanks to Joe Waugh for speaking on Sunday morning and to Heath Stapleton for speaking on Sunday night. I am confident that they did a great job. We have been supporting the Tipton Children's Home where Joe serves as Superintendent for many years. The children's home there is the oldest in our brotherhood. They do so much good. We have also been supporting the Brown Trail School of Ministry for many years and helping young men train for the ministry. Much good continues to result from the work they are doing in the Kingdom of God. I appreciate Ben Rhone for teaching the chapel class last Wednesday night. I know he did a good job as well. Holiday activities are about to begin soon. The ladies Bible Class will have their annual Thanksgiving luncheon this coming Tuesday at noon. We want to remind you that we will not meet on Wednesday evening Nov. 21st but on that Tuesday evening Nov. 20th instead. We always make that change because family members of those in the church will be arriving and working on the Thanksgiving meal for Thursday and this gives them an extra day to prepare. Please make a note of this. That Tuesday night, the men of the congregation will participate in the powerpoint production and devotional service. We hope you will plan to be present. We still have a number who are ill. Continue to pray for each of them. Thanks for coming today. We will see you tonight.
