

Teen News

Good morning! I hope you are enjoying the holiday season, especially being off from school. We will have an afternoon devotional today and will meet up in the classroom after services this morning. Have a very merry Christmas and remember the real reason we celebrate it. See you all tonight. BLAKE

NEW YEAR'S EVE PARTY

We will be meeting Monday night, December 31st, to bring in the New Year. Please meet at the activity building at 7 PM. Please bring your favorite finger food and your favorite game and come join us.

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

If a tombstone is all that's left to remind the world we've been here, it's a grave mistake

Bibles that are falling apart usually belong to people who aren't.

Those who "cook up" stories often find themselves in "hot water".

God doesn't want shares of your life, He wants controlling interest.

Mobs seldom gather together to perform an act of charity.

To handle yourself, use your head; to handle others, use your heart.

Congratulations

Congratulations to Zachary McEwen and Lindsey Gibson who were married yesterday here at the church building. We are happy for them as they begin their life together. They will be living in Huntsville, Texas.

*Merry Christmas Church

From Dan's desk:

It is good to have visitors among us this morning. We are always happy to have you with us. During the month of December numerous friends and loved ones visit our services while they are in town to be with their families during the Christmas season. Remember to spot our visitors and make them feel welcome to our congregation. Please be reminded that we will have an all congregation devotional this Wednesday night December 26th. We always make this change due to the holidays and many of our own brethren are out of town to be with their families. LINDA ALLEN responded to the invitation last Sunday asking for prayer. We commend her. Also on Sunday evening, RUTH COX was baptized. Dale and I met with her. She had been baptized years ago and was in question about her baptism. After much thought she decided to do this again and resolve the doubt. We rejoice with her on this decision. Everyone is reminded of the various events that will be taking place in the congregation here over the next few weeks. These are great times of fellowship. We have begun a new study in the church auditorium Bible class on Sunday morning on the subject of “Measuring Your Spiritual Growth”, if you are not attending Bible class on Sunday morning, please to be with us. Also on Wednesday night, we have started a new study in the chapel on the subject of “Conditions of Acceptable Prayer.” If you are not attending on Wednesday evening, please plan to be with us. Thanks for being here this morning. See you tonight
