Last Sunday night's Christmas party went great, we all had a good time.

Thanks to the widows and widowers for hosting the first part of our progressive dinner last Sunday night. We really appreciate it.

WINTER THOUGHTS

By Norman Gipson

I'm a little JANU-WEARY

From all the snow and ice,
To see a warm and sunny day
Would be so very nice.

But then I see the mountain's
With their crests a gleaming white,
And the clear blue sky above me
Is a grand and inspiring sight.

I'm a little FEBRU-WEARY

From sharp and piercing cold,
And sleet and slip'ry sidewalks,
And wintry blasts so bold.

But when I greet my brothers
And the congregation sings
The warmth pervades my spirit,
And a deep contentment brings,
So despite the wind and weather
And the problems that they bring,
I'll just MARCH on to worship,
And look ahead to spring.

GOD GRANT ME A NEW, NEW YEAR

By Ruth Cox

*God grant me a New, New Year,
And freedom to worship without fear.*

*Let my life be a mirror to all,
Never causing anyone to stumble or fall.*

*Lift my burdens, when they get to heavy to bear,
And grant me stronger faith, and more love to share.*

*Thank you Lord for the blessings each day,
To help those who asked, when I turned away.*

*Forgive me for the important things left undone,
All for the sake of fun.*

*Give me strength to set things right,
And always be pleasing in your sight. Amen.*

GREAT HOLIDAY FELLOWSHIP

From Dan's desk:

Well Christmas has come and gone. We hope that each of you had a wonderful holiday. Last Sunday night after the worship service 80 people went to the home of David and Jennifer Sparks for a period of holiday fellowship. The food was good and fellowship equal to it. It was great just being together. Our thanks to them for opening their home to all of us. We are so glad that each of you have come this morning. It is great to see you and we hope that if you are visiting with us you will want to come again. We are so excited about the coming New Year 2010. It will be a good year and no doubt it will hold many wonderful promises for each of us. Let's continue to pray for those traveling the highways for the holidays. Let's also remember those that are ill during this time.

PLEASE TURN OFF ALL CELL PHONES OR PUT THEM ON VIBRATE.

TO KEEP IN OUR PRAYERS

PLEASE REMEMBER THESE IN YOUR DAILY PRAYERS:

RHONDA DOUGLASS was air flighted to Tyler unresponsive and still had not responded at the time of this bulletin.

JIM DAVIS has been undergoing tests for a lump that has appeared on his neck.

GLENDA BASKIN is recovering from shoulder surgery she had last Monday in Tyler.

FRANKYA COOPER is also recovering from hernia surgery. She is at home and doing better.

DERRELL HARDISON, nephew of Janette Alford and brother-in-law of D'Anne Davis was gored by a bull and is in intensive care in the hospital in Tyler.

Others who have been ill are improved.

REMEMBER OUR MEMBERS WITH LONG-TERM ILLNESSES:

Glenda Wilson, Elmer & Recie Alford, Ed Furman, Ike Weatherly, Ida Lee Parkman, Oran & Adelle Benge, Maggie Larsen, R.D. Prince, Edith Lamb, SERVICEMEN: David Sims, Christopher Bevins.

Our Mid-week service will be on Thursday, December 31st, this week. We will have a devotional service at 7 PM in the chapel and then we will go to the activity building immediately after for a New Year's Eve Party. Please bring a finger food and plan to stay and see the New Year in with us.

BLOOD DRIVE

On Tuesday, January 12th, there will be a blood drive at Walmart for Maggie Larsen. Maggie is having to have blood transfusions on a regular basis because of her cancer. This is a way to help out on this expense. If you can donate, please mark this date down.
