There will be a table in the foyer this morning where you can pick up your "Pray For Our Nation" sign. The signs are 10 dollars and we have a few extras in case someone was unable to sign this list.

Sunday, May 23rd, we will have a youth & adults volleyball game. We invite everyone to stay and watch the game. We will have sandwiches, chips, and desserts. Please plan on sticking around that night after church for great fun and fellowship.

LADIES:

We will be collecting Labels for Education labels from all Campbell's soups and many other products that you may use. These labels will be sent to the Children's Homes to purchase needed things for the homes. Please bring these to the office and put them on the desk.

HUMOROUS STORIES ABOUT MOTHER

Mom's Where?

One evening after dinner, my five-year-old son Brian noticed that his mother had gone out. In answer to his questions, I told him, "Mommy is at a Tupperware party."

This explanation satisfied him for only a moment. Puzzled, he asked, "What's a Tupperware party, Dad?"

I've always given my son honest answers, so I figured a simple explanation would be the best approach. "Well, Brian," I said, "at a Tupperware party, a bunch of ladies sit around and sell plastic bowls to each other."

Brian nodded, indicating that he understood this curious pastime. Then he burst into laughter. "Come on, Dad," he said. "What is it really?"

Head of the Household

My husband, Jeff, and I incurred several problems while assembling our new computer system, so we called the help desk. The man on the phone started to talk to Jeff in computer jargon, which confused us even more.

"Sir," my husband politely said, "please explain what I should do as if I were a four-year-old."

"Okay," the computer technician replied. "Son, could you please put your mommy on the phone?"

A pair of black and silver dangle earrings were found in the auditorium a few weeks back. No one has inquired about losing them. If you did, please see Lorelee.

Happy Mother's Day

Today is the day that we know and celebrate as Mother's Day. It is the one time out of the year that we set aside a day to remember and honor our mothers. More telephone calls home are made today than any other day of the year. Many will be taking their mother someplace special to eat. Children will give their mothers gifts and bid them joy and happiness. There are others whose mothers have passed from this life to the next. While these mothers are not around for us to personally enjoy, we can certainly relish the memories that we have of their example, instruction, and love. Some will, perhaps, visit the grave of their mother. Others may simply quietly reflect upon their mother's life. However we celebrate Mother's Day, the good mother will always hold a special place within our hearts.

The Bible tells us of that beautiful mother who knows the importance of her relationship with her husband and honors it. She seeks godliness in her life so that she can rear her children to honor God in their lives as well. She respects God's institution of marriage and is faithful no matter what difficulties and burdens may come her way. She knows that there is no quick and easy path through life, but that which the Lord provides for her through His guidance (Matthew 11:30).

So on this Mother's Day, let us remember and know what a true mother is and never seek to change God's pattern for a good mother.

Happy Mother's Day Two respond to the Invitation

From Dan's desk:

God Bless Mothers. Happy Mother's Day to all the mothers in our audience today. We are glad you are here. If you are visiting with us this morning we hope you will come again. It is a great day and a wonderful time to acknowledge those who have given life to others. Abraham Lincoln said, "The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world." It was good to be back in the pulpit this Sunday after our meeting in Fort Worth. Thanks again to those who filled in while I was away. Last Sunday night two responded to the invitation. We commend BRANDY BAKER who came asking for forgiveness and expressing a desire to draw closer to God. Brandy is such a fine person and a great worker in God's Kingdom. Also responding was JERRY THOMPSON who came acknowledging sin and asking for the Lord's forgiveness. We commend Jerry and we want to continue to pray for each of these. Jerry also does a lot for the cause of Jesus. We appreciate the work being done by Jerry and Marlene with the Stock Pot in providing food for the less fortunate. We again thank you for being present this morning and we hope you will want to be with us tonight. God continues to bless each of us as we serve Him.

PLEASE TURN OFF ALL CELL PHONES OR PUT THEM ON VIBRATE.

I OWE MY MOTHER

1. My mother taught me TO APPRECIATE A JOB WELL DONE.
"If you're going to kill each other, do it out side. I just finished cleaning."
2. My mother taught me RELIGION.
"You better pray that will come out of the carpet."
3. My mother taught me about TIME TRAVEL.
"If you don't straighten up, I'm going to knock you into the middle of next week."
4. My mother taught me LOGIC.
"Because I said so, that's why."
5. My mother taught me MORE LOGIC.
"If you fall out of that swing and break your neck, you're not going to the store with me."
6. My mother taught me FORESIGHT.
"Make sure you wear clean underwear, in case you're in an accident."
7. My mother taught me IRONY.
"Keep crying, and I'll give you some thing to cry about."
8. My mother taught me about the WEATHER.
"This room of yours looks as if a tornado went through it."
9. My mother taught me about ANTICIPATION.
"Just wait until we get home."
10. My mother taught me HOW TO GROW UP.
"If you don't eat your vegetables, you'll never grow up."
11. My mother taught me about my ROOTS.
"Shut that door behind you. Do you think you were born in a barn."
AND MY FAVORITE:
12. My mother taught me about JUSTICE.
"One day you'll have kids, and I hope they turn out just like you."
